INTRODUCTION

A marriage of the chic and the comfortable describes this retro inspired swing jacket. It's so versatile, with seemingly endless options to personalize your creation. Traditional seaming or overlapping seaming may be used for visual interest. This mid hip length jacket with cropped sleeves sports a back inset across which span belts from classic to funky. Our unlined wool versions are delicious with silk ribbon binding on edges and may include wool felting on lapel and large single button closure. Instructions included. Four belt styles include an asymmetric belt with covered button, an artistically folded belt with silk ribbon binding, a saucy pair of twisted belts accented with silk ribbon and a funky belt of manipulated fabric intertwined with lace. Two lapel styles may be faced with self or contrasting fabric or left unlined in wool. Our combination tweed jacket is trimmed with folded, raw edged wool along lower edge. The same trim encircles the cuffs twice. Additional cuff designs include a covering of multiple width laces, a curved, lapped cuff and silk ribbon bound cuff. A jacket from glamorous to hip with an edge awaits you.
